Additional Information

Although we do not agree with how the government have approached the issue regarding XL Bullies, we will always respect the law as it's presented to us to follow. Any XL Bully owner that is following the government requirements will be welcome to enter their dog(s) into our Fun Dog Show. As a Rescue we do not support any training aid or control mechanism that inflicts unnecessary pain or discomfort to a dog such as prong / shock collars. We also do not support any unnecessary mutilation such as ear cropping but we are aware some of the dogs we see are Rescues who are welcome to participate in the Fun Dog Show classes.
